

19.54.010 Purpose of provisions.

The purpose of the foothill agricultural zones is to permit the development of the foothill areas of the county for rural residential, limited agricultural, limited animals and other specified uses, to the extent such development is compatible with the natural environment of these areas, particularly the natural slopes, vegetation, and fragile soils. (Ord. 1417 § 6 (part), 1998)